Shopping

Portree Youth Hostel is in the town centre and within a few minutes' walk there are several smaller shops, bakeries, a butcher and a post office, as well as many local eateries

Directions

Bus: Portree can be reached by direct buses from Glasgow and Inverness. The bus stop is only a couple of minutes from the youth hostel

Car: from the Skye Bridge to Portree it's about a 50 minute drive. After crossing the Skye Bridge the road passes through Broadford, then past Sligachan, with great views of the Cuillin mountains, until it reaches Portree. On entering Portree town, continue past the Aros Centre and Portree High School on the left. Close to it is a turn off signposted Dunvegan and Uig - keep to the main road to the right. The next turn off to the right, signposted for free public parking, leads to the car park and to the youth hostel's main entrance and reception

Parking

Free public parking is available opposite the youth hostel reception (cannot be reserved)

Local activities

Within walking distance there are boat trips from Portree harbour (fishing and sea eagle watching) and island tours in a minibus

Coastal walks and hikes up the cliffs surrounding Portree can be found close by and to suit any level of fitness

The Skye Highland Games take place in Portree in August
